

Chief Christopher Hodge

CHIEF'S CALLOUTS

Myself and the Auburn Police Department encourage everyone to ensure they are always being safe in their cars especially during this time of year.

There are distractions from the hectic times holidays bring, the decorations on homes and businesses, the excessive traffic in retail areas, and myriad other distractions.

Please use extreme caution during these times to be as safe as possible to protect yourself, pedestrians, other drivers, and property.

New @ the Whistlestop Shops

Heavenly Healing by Julie Southur

“A type of holistic healing that shifts mental, emotional, and spiritual stagnation and strengthens every cell in your body through therapeutic touch and healing crystals.”

Come down to the Whistlestop Shops and meet Julie and all of our other shop owners and check out what shops we have on the World Wide Web @ www.whistlestopshops.com

NOVEMBER

November, the last full month before Winter officially begins. The temps are dropping, the leaves are falling, and the shopping is ramping up.

November marks many historical moments from the first live passenger to space, the first provisional treaty to end the Revolutionary War, an assassination of a US President, all the way to the Battle of Bywater.

Such a historic month that includes the Battle of Bywater and the death of Saruman and Grima Wormtongue. This day, November 3rd T.A. 3019, marks the end of the War of the Ring.

MAYOR'S CORNER

Giving Thanks and Appreciating Our Blessings

The Holiday season is certainly upon us now and this crisp weather is the first sign. I'm sure the kids and kids at heart had a great time out Trick or Treating and now November is upon us. This month, and this season as a whole, is a time for us to give thanks and, MOST IMPORTANTLY, to share our blessings with those around us.

Many of us in the community are in a position to assist those in need. Many in our community struggle to provide even the basics for themselves and their families. Barrow and Gwinnett counties both have numerous resources available to anyone in need. So even if you cannot donate money, food, or goods please try to make sure you can donate some of your time. Even guiding someone in the direction of help may be a blessing of yours that you can share. We all get busy during these times and we need to take time during the hustle and bustle to stop and reflect on what we have and are thankful for and what we might be able to do to assist anyone else who may not be as blessed as ourselves.

Please find and utilize the links on the bottom of this page to find a way you can help or to simply pass along these links to someone who could utilize the services within.

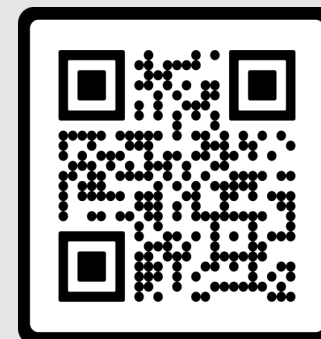

MAYOR LINDA BLECHINGER

Just across the street from City Hall at Auburn First Baptist Church they have a weekly Food Pantry for those in need of food assistance. Every Saturday @ 10:00am they open their doors for their Food Ministry. Scan the QR Code below for their calendar

The cosmetology and barbering career is a career that I chose for pleasure. It's something I enjoy doing. It is a passion for me to be able to transform the image of a person. Since the year 2000, when I started, I have had the opportunity to meet wonderful people, who have filled me with many experiences. For me they are not clients, they are friendships that I have achieved over time.
